

Chapter 2: Christ properly Learned is the Major Theme of One commentary, the must goal of Your Life!

The seven volumes of LCC for Learn Christ Commentaries originated on the foundation of the writing of this first volume of Prophets and Apostles in turn which was built on the total outline of the Bible around the Old Testament quotes in the New Testament. As you read the other six, as here, you will notice that like in Life and Letters of Paul and John on 5 books of the NT, these quotes form a backbone to the 7-volume set even as they form the backbone and structure to the Bible Itself.

NOTE: Recall that this is a study of the Bible Itself more than anything about the Bible., although other good solid survey courses and books have been utilized and are recommended to you if you have time for more than one in depth Bible course. Like Hester and Sampey's surveys of the OT, and Hester's Heart of the New Testament with Biblical Backgrounds by McGee and the Bible as History from Werner.

2-1: The Original 7 Volumes of the Learn Christ Bible Commentaries that are extensively free distributed on www.biblecombibleman.com and www.sungrist.org and continued each week with a steady flow of over 800 free downloads each week, and that are the base for this ONE COMMENTARY ON THE BIBLE in two books of the 7 volumes. Would that with so much unsound doctrine spewing out of seducing spirits and doctrines of devil's preachers and teachers that these two books, a complete set of Bible commentaries in ONE might be placed in the hand of every sincere Bible seeker.

1. Prophets and Apostles, the Bible.
2. Christ for Individuals, the 5 books of the Apostle John – Revelation, the Gospel of John, and the 3 little epistles.
3. "Believe and Be Baptized", the 14 New Testament letters of the Apostle Paul.
4. Christ, Paul, and the Falling Away, the book of Hebrews.
5. The 19 Writing Prophets of the Old Testament.
6. National Dens of Thieves, Jeremiah and Prophecy.
7. The Literal Forever Kingdom.

Below is a list of those seven and with the links where you can download them in PDF as hundreds do every week.

After 3 years of free online Bible Study of Jeremiah and Prophecy on www.biblecombibleman.com, 21 of the most popular chapters are included in volume 6 of the LEARN CHRIST COMMENTARIES. Not intended since it was a straightforward and conservative exegesis of the actual text of Jeremiah with applications to other nations from the Word of God, the timeliness for this year of 2012 for Christians to consider in their religion, politics, and social lives are amazing.

2-2: The Urgent Need to Properly Learn Christ

“This I say, therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you should no longer walk as the rest of the Gentiles walk, in the futility of their mind, having their understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart; who, being past feeling, have given themselves over to lewdness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.” (Ephesians 4:17-19)

“ But you have not so learned Christ, if indeed you have heard Him and have been taught by Him, as the truth is in Jesus...” (Ephesians 4:20)

I. Consider that you did not properly learn Christ if:

(1) Your life style is influenced more by your culture and associates than Christ and His teachings.

(2) You share a "futility of mind" with your associations which is an imagination separated from the realities of God.

Time in the Word Ministries elaborates from the Bible on the meaning of futility of the mind in these words:

"Their minds are full of are darkness (Eph 5:8), enmity against God (Rom 8:7), poisoned (Acts 14:2), debased (Rom 1:28), set on the things of the flesh (Rom 8:5), blinded (2 Cor 3:4; 4:4), vainly puffed up (Col 2:18), corrupt (1 Tim 6:5; 2 Tim 3:8), defiled (Titus 1:15), unstable (James 1:8), and finally as we will study today, futile (Eph 4:17)."

<https://timeintheword.org/2009/11/24/the-futility-of-their-mind/>

II. Is Paul and the Word of God through Paul getting us to doubt, of all things, that we did not learn Christ, that we have not really heard him in our heart, and our church membership has come by outside influences, not Christ; that Jesus has not really been your Teacher through the Holy Spirit in all the things He taught us to do and say; that you got your "truth in Christ" from others more than the Christ of the Bible.

III. Paul, as a former lawyer was extremely well trained in the law and the Prophets of the OT, and with His enlightenment and conversion by Christ, recognized a similar central common message of the 19 Writing Prophets, namely that GOD'S PEOPLE WERE NOT ACTING LIKE GOD'S PEOPLE. If we are the kind that compare ourselves by and with ourselves, alias our culture, it is easy to miss the boat on Learning Christ properly.

IV. Sanctification is important here as is your original regeneration or new birth, also the anticipated and assured glorification at the Second Coming of Christ, "when we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is." Even as the Bible in this verse points out the example learning of Christ in eternity, so we learn by the example in the Bible of Christ as we go along in life with sanctification, striving to close the gap in our internal Christ like along the life style path of all the way from new birth to glorification. One is inclined to naturally think that the smallness of our gap between initial regeneration and glorification of Christ likeness when we meet Christ in heaven will help to determine our positions of service on the new earth.

Conclusion: Even as life style is a complex subject, even more is the Proper way to engage in the process of learning Christ, and to help as a Bible guide or commentaries on this process you are offered free extensive and complete Bible studies in the 7 volumes of the Learn Christ Commentaries (LCC). Please during the next weeks free download as you have time, at 2-3: The Obvious Gap between Christ and Church Members.

The contemporary gap between Christ and church membership should be obvious to all. It hardly matters which church or denomination as you look at church members around you, and then look at the Christ of the Bible and the teachings of Christ, there is little similarity. The discouraging aspect of the gap is that it is getting larger each year. That means that it is diverging; and if it is diverging, it is conceivable that shortly the churches and Christ will be going in opposite directions. Horrible, yes; but what is the answer. What is the cure for this obvious and serious problem that has gripped the world of Christians?

The answer is for church members to Learn Christ. Which Christ? The Christ from the apostles and prophets of the Bible.

If one passage of the Bible were chosen as a gist or theme for this Bible commentary, LEARN CHRIST FROM THE APOSTLES AND PROPHETS, it would be Ephesians 2:19-22.

“Now, therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone, in whom the whole building being fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord, in whom you also are being built together for a dwelling place of God in the Spirit.”
(Ephesians 2:19-22 NJKV)

I know the classic reply for church leaders. “No human can be perfect”, and “at least they are trying.”

No, that is the point. The church members are not trying. They are doing what they want to do. They are not making positive efforts to be like Christ and to be like God which is demanded in the Bible from the apostles and prophets. The description of what is presently happening to church members is like the description from the Apostle Paul in II Timothy 4:3,4

“For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but according to their own desires, because they have itching ears, they will heap up for themselves teachers, and they will turn their ears from the truth...” (II Timothy 4:3,4 NJKV)

You see it is no longer a negative thing of “we are trying...our heart is in the right place...but we just cannot reach perfection.” No, that is not it! It is a positive matter of first, a lack of tolerance for sound doctrine—church members will not listen to sound doctrine, church members will not go to hear sound doctrine, and church members will not tolerate preachers and teachers who preach sound doctrine. You see how horrible that is as compared to the excuses from the heaped teachers of itching ears.

Church members, according to the Apostle Paul’s description, are motivated not by any effort to be like Christ and any effort at perfect but are motivated by their own human desires; that is, “according to their own desires,” and “because they have itching ears.” In short, church members are doing what they want to do, and they are believing what they want to believe. What they want to believe is things that will tickle their ears. Things that will give them pleasure like, “nobody is perfect” and “you are the people of God”, and “at least you are trying”. Maybe 20 or 30 years ago that was true; but not now. And the apex of the gap in Paul’s description is that they pile up or heap to themselves teachers. It is much like building a dirt fortress or batiment around themselves in order to protect themselves from sound doctrine. They buy books from teachers that feed their desires; they run off teachers and preachers that offend their itching ears with the truth; and they call as pastors, teachers, and administrators those “teachers” that will teach according to their own desires.

The whole motivation is to turn away from the truth. Now, brother, that is a positive thing. It takes a lot of effort for so-called “Christians” to turn away from the truth of the Bible. It takes a lot of effort for church members to cease to Learn Christ; and in the place of learning Christ to learn some kind of church membership that is based on “desires” and “itching ears”.

2-4: God’s Great Design of the Bible.

“Marvelous are all thy works of Creation, Oh Lord.” We stand in awe of both the astronomical creations of God and the microscopic. Man through the years has come to learn that even one atom is a marvel of a nucleus of positive protons holding together an equal number of electrons in orbit; think of just the marvel of water with two molecules of Hydrogen, a gas, with another on molecule of oxygen, making a liquid by which we live and survive, and the Periodic Table of Elements with well organized groups and rows is a discovery by man of some of the marvels of God's creation, He whose righteousness and wisdom is greater than the mountains and deeper than the seas. Man is a marvel and is called in the Bible the Crown of Creation. Not nearly as many people appreciate that the structure of the Bible, God's great design of the Bible over a period of two thousand years with selected and diverse men with different careers, is a miracle of design and construction with the Old Testament quotes in the New Testament holding it firmly together, this marvel of the work of God by the Trinity of God the Father, God the Son (the Word made flesh), and God the Holy Spirit. As you read for starters here, first the whole outline of the Bible around 12 topics made possible by quotes in the New Testament of the most important Old Testament verses from Prophets and the Spirit, for Gentiles and Hebrews, then with the marvels of the proper interpretations by Jesus and the Apostles (the Bible is summarized by Apostles, Prophets, and the Holy Spirit), then applications and implementation to provide humanity with the wisdom of God based on His own character a guidebook for Life and Living. Hopefully, an inspiration of your reading here will be what Jesus said of a balanced life, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes out of the mouth of God." McLendon Day of Baylor University captured some of that marvel of THE BOOK when she wrote "The Wonder of the Word". See—

You should understand the method of ONE: Besides being literal, it is the most complete IN CONTEXT and complete COMPARISON of Scripture that you can find in print, simple because the writing and desktop publication has been on the basis of the Old Testament quotes in the New Testament, a Table of which you can check in the Appendix to this chapter. In classical hermeneutics, sometimes called the science of biblical interpretation like in Bernard Ramm's marvelous book on the subject, the two principles are set forth as (1) compare Scripture with Scripture, in other words compare what you are reading in the OT with the NT and vice versa, compare what you are reading or studying in Mark with Matthew, Luke, and John, and primarily since there is a weird tendency started by Scofield and Scofield mites to approach the book of Revelation as if it is separated from the rest of the Bible, there is the need to compare Revelation with Ezekiel and with the teachings of Jesus on eschatology especially in Matthew 24, also to keep consistent with the Day of the LORD of the OT which many times is more descriptive than the NT; and (2) keep your understanding of any verse or book of the Bible in the total context of the Bible. Take the word of the Bible Itself on this matter, and note how this comparison of scripture with scripture being lead not only by the way He wrote the Book but also how He Revealed the 66 books of the Bible, how we understand the Bible only with the help of God the Holy Spirit, but how the opposite of this method of Bible study is Theology, the wisdom of men, II Corinthians 2:10-14. There are too many natural men in the Seminaries of Harvard and Yale for their theology to be the required curriculum for Bible study. It violates not only the spirit of what you find here in the Bible next, but also the law or text of the Bible.

“But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.”

2-6: Prophets and Apostles explains what the Bible is all about.

God the Holy Spirit wrote the Old Testament for mankind through carefully chosen Prophets in the Old Testament and that same Spirit wrote the New Testament based on what He had done in the OT through Jesus and carefully chosen Apostles. You have heard the unique conversion of Saul of Tarsus to Apostle Paul on the road of Damascus by an encounter with the Ascended Jesus Christ Himself, then God the Holy Spirit used Paul to write 14 out of 27 books of the NT, and sponsor with manuscripts he gave to John Mark and Dr Luke, 3 other books of the NT – Mark, Luke, and Acts.

This book of the Apostles and Prophets, or Prophets and Apostles, are Learn Christ from the Apostles and Prophets, back in about 1990, was the first Bible commentary written, and only recently when I saw the need for one in depth and thorough Bible course, did it occur of the necessity to get it out there for both the consumption of Katy McMichael, a Christian brain of “sound mind” and to complete in public availability (beyond the free downloads of SunGrist websites) the 7 volumes of the Learn Christ Commentaries. Actually, this is more than the equivalent of two Bible courses, a survey of the Old Testament and a survey of the New Testament, only in one volume, because it is primarily a study of the Bible Itself more than “about the Bible”. It could be compared to a Baylor freshman equivalent course of Woodfin’s survey of the NT using the RSV Bible Itself, or a UT Austin Bible chair course at University Baptist Church on the book of Acts where Acts itself was studied in the Moffatt translation. Romans under MacGorman at SWBTS in the summer of 1961 was meant to primarily use the book on Romans for which he was famous on campus, but as was the personal habit for Bible Itself, a complete study, teaching, and preaching outline was done on Romans to more than supplement the Bible course. If you have seen the seventh and second volumes of the Learn Christ commentaries on either Amazon or other numerous bookstores, you will recognize that the originality of this volume 1 was not changed; that is, the custom of all Bible quotes in green has been wavered for this first volume to help preserve the inspiration of the moment, first written on a typewriter and then later on a MAC computer and printed out on old printer sheets with the holes on the sides. (There was just no heart to change such marvelous moments of Bible concentration from 1985-1995 at Rosamond California while working second shift at the F-16 Combined Test Force at Edwards Air Force Base.) Ann came out to California later and with her marvelous sense of humor of expression, said, “The words just poured out the trailer when she opened the door.” It was not long after coming to Rosamond as she had the habit of doing at least six times, she miraculously came out of the inability to walk, which started at Mineral Wells Hospital while on duty in the ER, and where the doctors said she would never walk again since her spinal cord was 99% occluded with a slipped disk. She went to work again as an RN at Ridgecrest and herself rented a nice trailer with an outdoor hot tub, the point being that the pouring out of pages in the Comfort trailer at Rosamond continued, and we had the weekends together at Ridgecrest. (Ah, the great memories!) And partly this paragraph is added for Katy as she is so much like her grandmother, Ann McMichael.) And quite frankly, as the final preparations were made for the publisher, there was a sense of amazement not unlike that of J. B. Philips stated in the preface to his translation of Revelation, “It was felt as if electricity was going through my body”; for it is still a marvel that God has allowed us to see the wonderful structure of His Design of His Book by using through the Holy Spirit and Prophets, through Jesus and the Apostles, the unity and consistency of the Bible by the way of the Old Testament quotes in the New Testament. You too, with continued reading and study, will be awed as the Great Design of the Bible by God the Father as you grasp and bask in the spiritual illumination of one quoted verse after another! In the final editing of this book, often a pause was made to revel in the spiritual insight of almost forgotten Scripture of the Bible, benefiting myself as I pray Katy and others will benefit from this volume 1 of the LCC.

Lately, especially on Facebook, disparaging words have been said about the Old Testament as compared to the New Testament, which makes a mockery out of the internal structure of the total Bible God the Holy Spirit used to put in all together in a book of 66 books, that structure being the Old Testament quotes in the New Testament. It also makes a mockery out of the Jewish people of whom Paul wrote their chief advantage and contribution was “committed unto them were the oracles of God”. It would seem that they are either admitted an ignorance or neglect of the Old Testament, or the Scofield followers find the Old Testament interferes with their addition of dispensations to the Bible. In either case, they cannot be forgiven for minimizing or tampering with the total “faith once for all delivered to the saints”. God speaks through His total Word, much in the New Testament is made clear in the Old and even more of the New Testament makes clear and builds on the Old Testament. There just is no Word of God without both Testaments.
